

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER – Nebraska Families Collaborative

Reporting to the Executive Director, the Chief Operating Officer is responsible for leading and managing agency operations. The ideal candidate is a strong strategic thinker with progressive management experience. Experience in child welfare or children's behavioral health would be beneficial as the Nebraska Families Collaborative vision is a community with strong families in which children are safe and thriving.

Nebraska Families Collaborative is a partnership which brings together the knowledge, expertise, and missions of Boys Town, Child Saving Institute, Heartland Family Service, Nebraska Family Support Network and OMNI Behavioral Health. Together these agencies share over 400 years experience caring for children and their families and have deep roots in the local community.
